

	Object: D15415 Storyboard Museum: Übersee-Museum Bremen Bahnhofplatz 13 28195 Bremen sammlung@uebersee- museum.de Collection: Ozeanien, Ethnographische Sammlungen Inventory number: D15415
--	---

Description

Storyboard carved in the shape of a fish from light wood, telling a Palauan myth or legend. The design of the storyboards finds its origin in the decoration of the cross and gable beams of the traditional men's houses (bais). Today, storyboards are often made by Koror's prison inmates, who earn some money by selling them.

Basic data

Material/Technique:

Measurements:

Events

Created When 1970-1980

Who

Where Palau

[Relationship to location] When

Who

Where Palau