

	Object: D10711 oil lamp golbidel Museum: Übersee-Museum Bremen Bahnhofplatz 13 28195 Bremen sammlung@uebersee- museum.de Collection: Ozeanien, Ethnographische Sammlungen Inventory number: D10711
--	--

Description

Molded from clay hemispherical oil lamp with a large opening. From the hemisphere goes a pipe. At the top edge, three coconut fiber cords were pulled through three holes, evenly spaced for suspension. Two of the cords were pulled through a thin piece of bamboo each. At the top three coconut fiber strings were pulled through three holes, evenly spaced for hanging. Two of the strings were pulled through a thin bamboo cane each.

Basic data

Material/Technique:

Measurements:

Events

Created When 1850-1900

Who

Where Palau

[Relationship
to location] When

Who

Where Palau

Keywords

- Lamp
- Oil lamp