

| | |
|--|--|
| | Object: D06936 trolling lure Museum: Übersee-Museum Bremen Bahnhofplatz 13 28195 Bremen sammlung@uebersee- museum.de Collection: Ozeanien, Ethnographische Sammlungen Inventory number: D06936 |
|--|--|

Description

Made of mother-of-pearl in a concave slightly curved shape, this white-brownish lure resembles a fish body and was used to catch larger fish species. The light reflections created by the mother-of-pearl and the swirled water caused by the weight of the bait attract the fish and can be caught with a fishhook.

Basic data

Material/Technique:

Measurements:

Events

Created When 1850-1900

Who

Where Palau

[Relationship to location] When

Who

Where Palau

Keywords

- Fischfanggerät
- Nacre
- Spoon lure